The Hajj Sangbad established its place in the media scene of Dhaka, Bangladesh. on 14 January, 2014. It started its journey with a sense of challenge and a feeling of humility to serve the purpose of the nation of Bangladesh in Hajj & Umrah as a truly independent newspaper. The Hajj Sangbad made its debt at a historic time when, with the fall of an autocratic regime, the country was well-set to begin a new era towards establishing a democratic system of government which eluded this country for too long.

For The Hajj Sangbad it was a privilege to be part of that changing scene. With that privilege came an enormous responsibility of upholding the duties of a free press. The Hajj Sangbad is proud to pursue that policy without relenting for the past two years. Our long-term responsibility is to strengthen public opinion on how our democratic system should work and how to sustain and nurture democratic norms effectively and Performing hajj & Umrah .

The uniqueness of The Hajj Sangbad lies in its non-partisan position, in the freedom it enjoys from any influence of political parties or vested groups. Our strength is in our positioned neutrality in conflicts between good and evil, justice and injustice, right and wrong, regardless of positions held by any group or alliance. That's why people ? whether in power or in opposition ? respect The Hajj Sangbad. The Hajj Sangbad advocates rule of law, human rights, gender issues, national interests, press freedom, transparency and accountability of people in administration and in the world of trade and industry on which The Hajj Sangbad has never compromised whatever the costs. No political powers can take us for granted and none is given cause to doubt our fairness.

Presently The Hajj Sangbad is the most widely browsed Web page by the Bangladeshi nationals Hajj & Umrah and it is frequently quoted in national and international journals, seminars, research papers as the most trusted and authentic source of news. For The Hajj Sangbad and those who work here it is a rare privilege to be cherished by all.
